Speakers

Charles Tremendous Jones

In 1965, Charlie Jones founded Life Management Services to share his experience through seminars and consulting services.

Thousands around the world have experienced nonstop laughter as Mr. "T" shares his ideas about life's most challenging situations in business and at home. Two of his speeches, "The Price of Leadership" and "Where Does Leadership Begin?" have been enjoyed by millions. He is the author and editor of nine books, including Life is Tremendous.

Debra Fine

Debra Fine is the founder and owner of The Fine Art of SmallTalk, a company focused on teaching professionals conversational skills for use at networking events, conventions and clients.

She is a former engineer and is recognized as a keynote speaker and trainer. Debra brings humor described in a Denver Post article as a "mixture of stand-up comic, therapist and teacher".

Dilip Mukerjea

He is Owner and Managing Director of Buzan Centre Singapore Pte Ltd, an organisation dedicated to the advancement of Mental Literacy.

Dilip Mukerjea is Regional Master Trainer for The Buzan Techniques, and acclaimed as “phenomenally creative and easily one of the world’s top ten Master Mind Mappers” by Tony Buzan himself.

He is a world-leader in teaching the Tony Buzan principles of Mind Mapping. A marine engineer by training, he is author of many best sellers in the Creative Brain Series.
