OBJECTIVES

The objective of this seminar is to explain the background and provisions in the Professional Engineers (Code of Professional Conduct and Ethics) Rules. It will also explain the provisions and the procedure in the Professional Engineers Act on actions against Professional Engineers who contravened the Rules. The speaker will share with participants on examples of past disciplinary cases against professional engineers. This course may also be useful for Civil, Electrical and Mechanical Engineers going for Practice of Professional Engineering Examination conducted by Professional Engineers Board Singapore.

SPEAKER'S PROFILE

Er. Kok King Min was the Registrar, Professional Engineers Board from 1988-1998. He was also a Board Member from 1999-2005. King Min was a Board Member in the Board of Architects (1999-2002). King Min was the President of the Association of Consulting Engineers Singapore (2000-2004) and a past Chairman of the Asia Pacific Regional Group of FIDIC.

King Min graduated with a First Class Honours degree in Civil Engineering from the Monash University, Melbourne. He started work in the Public Works Department in 1975 and rose to become the Senior Director (Specialist Services). When the PWD was corporatized in 1999, King Min was appointed the Executive Vice President (Specialist Services). He was subsequently appointed the Managing Director of CPG Consultants before stepping down in March 2011.
